Industrial Wellness and Heritage Charm: Touring MGEN Power Plant Clinic and Iloilo’s Gastronomic and Cultural Legacy

Join us for a compelling practice tour at MERALCO PowerGen (MGEN), which operates a coal-fired power plant in Iloilo City, where you’ll witness their commitment to sustainable energy and a safe, secure future. This unique experience offers Family Physicians an insider’s view of occupational health and worker safety in a high-demand industrial setting, complete with a guided site tour and a Q&A session with the on-site physician. The journey continues with an immersion into Iloilo’s rich culinary and cultural heritage. Savor traditional Ilonggo flavors at the charming Agatona 1927 Museum Cafe. Then, explore local culture and religious history at the iconic Jaro Cathedral. Take a stroll around Jaro Plaza, where you can enjoy freshly baked bibingka, a traditional Filipino coconut rice cake.

Don’t miss this perfect blend of professional insight and gastronomic discovery!

Time: March 26, 2026 from 2:30 PM – 6:00 PM
